Tsogo Sun and eThekweni Mayor gear up for 2016 Amashova Durban Classic Race

Tsogo Sun Management team and eThekweni Mayor Zandile Gumede gearing up and wishing all participating cyclists well for the 30th annual Tsogo Sun Amashova Durban Classic in KwaZulu-Natal, taking place on the 16th of October 2016.

The race kicks off from Pietermaritzburg City Hall to Durban through spectacular scenery, ending at Masabalala Yengwa Avenue, with the prize-giving at Tsogo Sun's Suncoast. The main Tsogo Sun Amashova race is 106km long, with two shorter 'fun ride' options of 35km, which starts at Hillcrest and ends at Suncoast, and the 65km half challenge, which starts at Cato Ridge and ends at Suncoast. All three races have full road closure.
