Arabella Hotel, Golf & Spa reveals Easter Golf Getaway offer

Luxury Hermanus destination, Arabella Hotel, Golf & Spa has revealed a new offer specially created for discerning golfers looking to escape the city this Easter weekend. Golf enthusiasts and their families can experience Easter at its finest with a package that includes luxury accommodation, breakfast, and a round of golf for two, as well as a fun, activity-filled Easter programme should they choose to bring the family along.

Nestled within the Kogelberg Biosphere in Kleinmond, Arabella is only a 60-minute drive from the Cape Town International Airport, making it the perfect long weekend getaway. With 145 luxurious rooms and suites all boasting spectacular views of the ocean, lagoon and mountains, Arabella is a statement in refined elegance. The hotel's range of fine dining options offer an outstanding menu and wine selection. Jamani restaurant is renowned for locally sourced farm-to-table dishes as well as a variety of classic favourites from around the world. Guests can indulge in sundowners at Laguna Lounge and Barnabas Bar, which overlook the swimming pool, gardens and lagoon.

Arabella's picturesque golf course is ranked the seventh best course in the country, steadily improving its rating year-on-year through exceptional course management and landscaping. The golf experience at Arabella begins on arrival with a golf bag drop at the hotel reception and continues with the convenience of stepping out of the hotel directly onto the putting green. There is no better place to play a thrilling 72-par 18 holes round, with pristine grass, tricky sand traps and challenging water hazards. Designed by Peter Matkovich, Arabella golf course has been played and lauded by world-famous celebrities such as Samuel L. Jackson as well as professional golfers such as Ernie Els and Gary Player, and boasts two signature holes, the 8th which is a par 5 and the 17th which is a par 3.

Arabella offers more than golf, with its award-winning spa that features a rainforest, sauna, hydrotherapy healing and pool, as well as a fitness centre, tennis courts and resort style swimming pools. A fun-filled kids' programme will run over the Easter weekend offering arts and crafts, movies, dancing, cookie-painting and an Easter egg hunt with a guest appearance by Arabella's very own Easter bunny.

The Arabella Easter Golf Getaway offers exceptional value for only R3,000 per room per night for two people sharing in a Deluxe Garden Room, including buffet breakfast as well as a round of golf for two people. Upgrade to a Suite and bring the family. Two children under 12, stay and eat breakfast free, when sharing with adults. The offer is valid for the nights of 7, 8 & 9 April 2023 only.
